This charming 1930's American farmhouse sits majestically on over an acre of property in a tranquil area of West Deer. But don't be fooled! You are just minutes away from Route 8, major shopping, Cranberry Twp and a half hour from the city! The front door opens into the warm and cozy living room. Serve your guests and family in the large dining room. The bright and light eat-in kitchen has stainless steel appliances and ceramic tile floors. You can enter the generous concrete patio through the kitchen. A full bath completes the lower level. The upstairs has 3 bedrooms and a beautifully updated bathroom. There is plenty of space for 2 cars, storage, and a workshop in the detached garage. Imagine the entertaining you could do on this fabulous flat backyard. Enjoy looking at the wildlife around you. This very special home is ready for you to call your own!
