This is a beautiful house on the top road in Kamuela which means it has fabulous views of the coast and the three mountains. It also has incredible privacy. The floor plan is well designed with a great room, dining area and kitchen all with the view that we cherish. The bedrooms also enjoy the open country feeling. The roof is slate. The counters are corian. The stove is gas, and there is a solar film on the living room windows to protect the furnishings from fading. The flooring in the living room/dining room is chocolate heart. The owner will consider selling some of the art and priceless koa furniture. Few properties are this perfectly furnished. Although there is no garage presently, there is quite a lot of room to add one without interfering with the landscaping.
